

John's Picnic

Today is Sunday. The weather is sunny and hot. John and his parents go to May Park. They have a lot of food and drinks. They are very happy.

Suddenly they see a monkey. The monkey jumps onto the table. It takes away the bananas. Dad is angry. Dad says, 'Stop! Don't take the bananas!' He runs after the monkey.

However, the monkey runs very fast.

Finally Dad cannot catch the monkey. He comes back. He sees the bananas on the table. He is surprised. He asks Mum, 'Why are the bananas here?' Mum says, 'Because John catches the monkey.' Dad says, 'John, you can run very quickly. You can catch the monkey.' John is happy.
