Where was his wallet?

Last Sunday, Tommy and his parents wanted to celebrate Tommy getting high marks in the English test, so they decided to take Tommy to Ocean Park. When they arrived at Ocean Park, Tommy and his parents went straight to the Dolphin Theatre to watch the dolphins performance. When they were in the theatre, the show started. Later on, the most exciting part of the show began! The dolphins jumped through the hula hoop.

The audience cheered and clapped their hands. Some of them even yelled, 'It is great!' Tommy stood up and didn't notice he dropped his wallet.

When the show ended, Tommy's family visited a souvenir shop not very far from the Dolphin Theatre. Tommy walked around the shop and found a dolphin pen. He put the pen on the table and he searched his pocket for his wallet, but he couldn't find it.

Finally, the family went back to the theatre and kept looking for Tommy's wallet. However, they still couldn't find it. Luckily, at last, the security guard found the wallet and gave it back to Tommy. Tommy was grateful and said thank you to the security guard. The family went back to the shop to buy the pen. Tommy was very thankful and extremely happy to get the chance of going to Ocean Park.
