

A Bad Experience in the Park

Last Sunday, Oscar took his dog Tifi to the park in the afternoon. They were delighted. Oscar wanted to teach Tifi some tricks. Tifi learnt to wiggle its tail. Tifi even learnt how to attack people if they tried to attack Oscar. They played games there too. They were happy.

Suddenly, a robber came out of the bushes. He was tall and thin. He wore a mask. He was in a black T-shirt and blue jeans. The worst of all was he was holding a knife. He said loudly, 'Give me all your money or else I will attack you!' Oscar was afraid so he screamed, 'Help! Help!' However, no one came to help him.

When the robber was about to attack Oscar, Tifi ran quickly towards the robber and bit the robber's leg. The robber was angry. He tried to kick Tifi away but Tifi didn't let go. Oscar called the police while Tifi was biting the robber. When the police came, the robber tried to run away.

Finally, the police caught the robber. Then, the police rewarded Tifi a toy and a medal for saving Oscar. Oscar felt glad that he was safe. Tifi was even shown up on the news.
